

CENTRAL BANK OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF IRAN

Security features of 1,000,000Rials IRAN CHEQUE

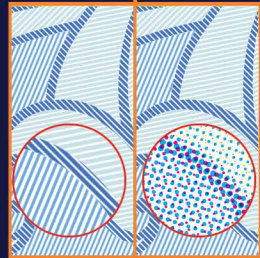

Original sample

Conterfeit sample

Micro print

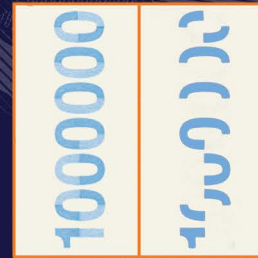

Linear design

All designs are linear and each line carries its own color information. While in counterfeit samples, design lines are formed by combination of colored dots and are visible by the magnifying glass

Watermark

The Portrait of Ferdowsi is in the paper and 1000000 can be observed more clearly

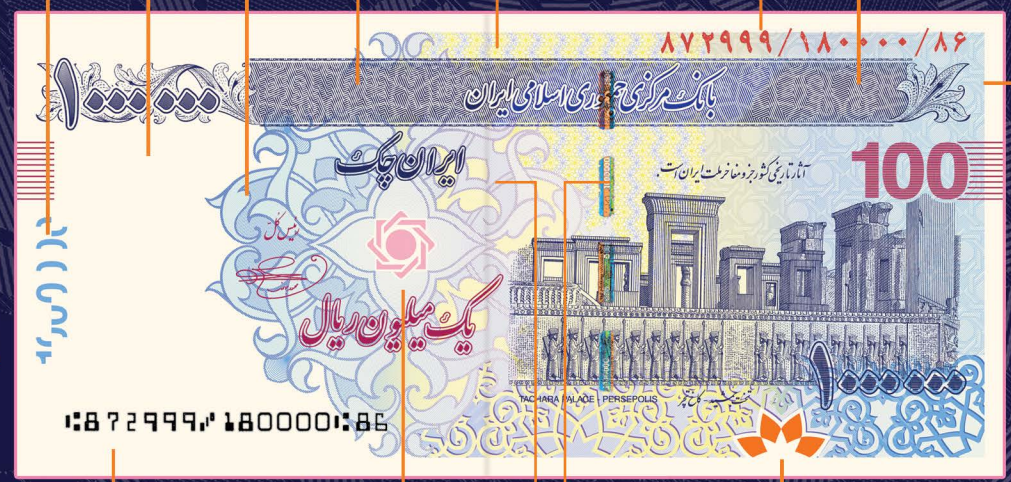

See-through register can be observed completely under the light

Security serial number

۸۷۲۹۹۹/۱۸۰۰۰۰/۸۶

Three dimensional linear design

Latent image

The text of IRAN CHEQUE, 100 can be observed when Iran Cheque is tilted against the eye level

Machine readable serial number

This part must be kept clean carefully

Thermo ink

The logo of Central Bank of the Islamic Republic of Iran is designed in a way that its color disappears with finger touch and heat increase and appears again after cooling

Anti-copy ink

After copying, the color of ink changes to brown

Windowed security thread
Holographic thread including colorless figure of 1000000

Intaglio printing

All blue and red parts on the front side are intaglio printing and are easily touchable with finger

Fluorescent ink

Embedded security thread in the front and back side of Iran Cheque under UV light can be observed in four colors and background in green and blue

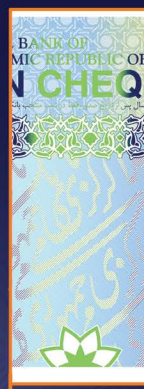

Embedded security thread
Fluorescent thread with the phrase of Bank Markazi Jomhuri Islami Iran is in the paper

Color change

This part which is printed with a special blue ink can be observed in light green under Infrared light

In this part invisible 100 can be observed under UV light